

Blue

© Music & Lyrics Rogier Avis

there is no time, to see what's going on I am swept up, too much confusion I accept my fate, my mind still blown away nothing to hold on to my bearings worn away as I am drowning in an ocean of despair

yes, I'm blue, so blue since I lost you my heart still true to you yes I'm blue, oh so blue there seems no light no brightness in sight

how did I get here, for so long so happy I cannot control our love, it (just) seems to slip away where should I go, what should I do just keep hanging on do I have to cut loose? cause it has no use

to keep hanging on with no future at all
