

Child Of An Angel (2020)

© Music & Lyrics Rogier Avis

see her just runnin' her hair floating in the wind see her just kissin' while she hugs me so tight look at her playing, my child she thinks that what she wants, she will get child of an angel, I'm so glad that you're mine child of an angel, could you be all I want child of an angel, there's so much that I feel child of an angel, don't you ever leave me see her just talking as she knows what to say look at her smiling, her face while I melt for her eyes, once more you're so young, yet so wise you're so strong, and with pride you're so sweet & you're tough, in body & mind but daughter so fine, you will always be mine
