

Goodbye

© Music & Lyrics Rogier Avis would you have guessed, where I am today would you have laughed, at the things I do and say how I miss you and the way, you took care

I can't give back, all that you gave too overwhelming, like an ocean wave how I need it, and you made me feel *wish you could see me now, and all that I am here today

I pass on, what you have taught to me long time ago*

so it's

you had your secrets, I found out too late the way you could hide the pain, was it all your fate how I still miss you, and the memories keep slipping away

Still have your photo, when you were young big white smile, the world could do no wrong how I still love you, and the way we all were
