

Having Said The Word (2020)

© Music & Lyrics Rogier Avis there's a feeling deep inside of things that passed me by How to deal with all the changes at where we're standing now *and there is something good to see renewing all the dreams that might have been to migrate to a different phase how we stand, where we go....

.....having said*

the word

for many years this has been so right thinking it would never end enjoying life as much as we can but it changed, what did we know

Will you say the word, it makes me sad and hurt
