

How Lonely Is The Heart (2020)

© Music & Lyrics Rogier Avis the way things are, no changes to expect lined up are we all before the door of destiny they who will resist, shouting and kicking will end up bridge covered or in the hall of fame

I've got so many reasons, just to let it go got so many heartaches, just to let you know all of us trying to find truth by lying this road from home that will never turn

all of us hiding, feelings keep dying the mind still closed, it's way not revealed how lonely, how lonely, how lonely is the heart keeping your shades on, prevents you from gliding decisions so easy to take, not the way this world has been made time will come you will break with the past ending the silence outside, showing who you really are

.....how lonely is your heart
